South Carolina Public Service Commission Schedules Customer Public Hearing in Kiawah Island Utility, Inc. Docket

Columbia, South Carolina—The Public Service Commission of South Carolina has scheduled an in-person and virtual (via telephone or Webex) customer public hearing for 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday, February 4th, 2026, at the Commission's Hearing Room (101 Executive Center Drive, Columbia, SC 29210) to hear from Kiawah Island Utility, Inc. customers on Kiawah Island Utility's request in Docket No. 2025-243-WS.

In their application, Kiawah Island Utility, Inc. requests an adjustment in rates designed to achieve additional annual revenues of $1,301,330. The company has provided estimates of the bill impacts on residential water and residential sewer customers in their application; these estimates can be reviewed in the Commission's Notice of Filing and Public Hearing at this link.

Customers who wish to register to testify either in-person or virtually (via telephone or Webex) at this public hearing can do so by preregistering in one of the following ways:

1. Emailing communications@psc.sc.gov with their name, telephone number, and physical address,
2. Filling out the survey at this link, or
3. Calling 803.896.2639 and leaving a message with their name, telephone number, and physical address.

More information about this Docket, including all materials filed in the matter, can be found on the Commission's Docket Management System at this link.
